2024 Summer Reading Bookmark Contest

Contest Rules:

- Any Fond du Lac County resident may enter.
- Submissions will be judged on quality of composition, creativity, & originality.
- Extra consideration will be given to entries that tie into this year's summer reading theme: Read, Renew, Repeat.
- All submissions must be your original work. Please include the medium you used to create your piece on your entry form. No AI generated work will be accepted or considered.
- Participants are limited to one submission.
- Do not put your name anywhere on your design when you submit it! All entries will be judged anonymously. Your name only goes on the entry form.
- Keep a copy of the submission in case of an unforeseen accident/disaster.
- There are no restrictions on theme or content; however, the library reserves the right to not accept works that may be unsuitable for a public environment. Please keep it PG-13 or tamer!
- Entries need to include their artwork, submitter's name, phone number and or email, and age in order to be considered.
- Submission of any entry in the contest grants the Fond du Lac Public Library the right to display, distribute, and/or publish the entry and name of the participants in the library, on the internet, and in print publications for promotional or informational purposes.
- The creator retains the right of ownership of any submission.
- The judging panel may consist of library staff and/or community members.
- Collaborative pieces are accepted, however, only a single prize will be awarded.
- Deadline for submitting entries is Sunday, August 18th at 4:00pm (when the library closes)
- Submit entries to any Library Assistance Desk or email entries to: davis@fdlpl.org (your email must include the attached entry form. Please put "Bookmark Contest Submission 2024" as the subject of your email).
